

Global Learning And Development Education Resources for Learning, Parkway, Bridgwater, Somerset, TA6 4RL. 01278 439347 glade@glade.org

Developing knowledge, skills and attitudes for change in a global society

GAMBIA COLLECTION

Please use the boxes on the right to check the items IN and then OUT before you return the collection. Please put the items back in the correct containers (Box 1 and 2) as listed below.

Box 1

IN OUT

Conions, tomatoes etc)   Large metal cooking pot with lid			IIN C	,,,
Large metal cooking pot with lid	Pestle & mortar (stored
with lid	separately)	1
Large enamel bowl with lid Small enamel bowl with lid For serving up food to be eaten communally Wooden spoon Used for stirring large quantities of food Metal rice spoon Gourd spoons x 2 For draining & serving rice Gourd spoons x 2 For serving food Sieve Made from recycled cans Plastic kettle Used for carrying small quantities of water – for drinking or washing hands & feet before prayers  Plastic mug Fuelled with charcoal from the fire. Used to iron and maintain clothing  Attaya stove Fuelled with charcoal. Used for brewing 'attaya' – a strong, Chinese green tea. Brewed up to 4 times a day as a social activity, mainly by men.  Attaya pot Blue kettle-like pot used in the making of attaya. The brew is used 3 times, each being much weaker than the one previous.  Attaya glass x 1 Used for drinking attaya from. Packets of tea x 2 Green tea from China, as used for attaya Candles x 7 These are the main form of lighting, alongside oil lamps & torches Foop
Small enamel bowl with lid Wooden spoon Used for stirring large quantities of food Metal rice spoon For draining & serving rice Gourd spoons x 2 For serving food Sieve Made from recycled cans Plastic kettle Used for carrying small quantities of water – for drinking or washing hands & feet before prayers Plastic mug Iron & stand Fuelled with charcoal from the fire. Used to iron and maintain clothing Attaya stove Fuelled with charcoal. Used for brewing 'attaya' – a strong, Chinese green tea. Brewed up to 4 times a day as a social activity, mainly by men. Attaya pot Blue kettle-like pot used in the making of attaya. The brew is used 3 times, each being much weaker than the one previous. Attaya glass x 1 Used for drinking attaya from. Packets of tea x 2 Green tea from China, as used for attaya Candles x 7 These are the main form of lighting, alongside oil lamps & torches Foop	with lid
Wooden spoon  Metal rice spoon  Gourd spoons x 2  For serving food  Made from recycled cans  Plastic kettle  Used for carrying small quantities of water – for drinking or washing hands & feet before prayers  Plastic mug  As above  Fuelled with charcoal from the fire. Used to iron and maintain clothing  Attaya stove  Fuelled with charcoal. Used for brewing 'attaya' – a strong, Chinese green tea. Brewed up to 4 times a day as a social activity, mainly by men.  Attaya pot  Blue kettle-like pot used in the making of attaya. The brew is used 3 times, each being much weaker than the one previous.  Attaya glass x 1  Packets of tea x 2  Green tea from China, as used for attaya  Candles x 7  These are the main form of lighting, alongside oil lamps & torches  Handmade from natural materials in Gunjur	Large enamel bowl with lid	For serving up food to be eaten communally
For draining & serving rice	Small enamel bowl with lid	For serving up food to a family
Gourd spoons x 2  Sieve  Made from recycled cans  Used for carrying small quantities of water – for drinking or washing hands & feet before prayers  Plastic mug  As above  Fuelled with charcoal from the fire. Used to iron and maintain clothing  Attaya stove  Fuelled with charcoal. Used for brewing 'attaya' – a strong, Chinese green tea. Brewed up to 4 times a day as a social activity, mainly by men.  Attaya pot  Blue kettle-like pot used in the making of attaya. The brew is used 3 times, each being much weaker than the one previous.  Attaya glass x 1  Packets of tea x 2  Green tea from China, as used for attaya  Candles x 7  These are the main form of lighting, alongside oil lamps & torches  Handmade from natural materials in Gunjur	Wooden spoon	Used for stirring large quantities of food
Sieve Made from recycled cans  Plastic kettle Used for carrying small quantities of water – for drinking or washing hands & feet before prayers  Plastic mug As above Fuelled with charcoal from the fire. Used to iron and maintain clothing  Attaya stove Fuelled with charcoal. Used for brewing 'attaya' – a strong, Chinese green tea. Brewed up to 4 times a day as a social activity, mainly by men.  Attaya pot Blue kettle-like pot used in the making of attaya. The brew is used 3 times, each being much weaker than the one previous.  Attaya glass x 1 Used for drinking attaya from.  Packets of tea x 2 Green tea from China, as used for attaya  Candles x 7 These are the main form of lighting, alongside oil lamps & torches  Handmade from natural materials in Gunjur	Metal rice spoon	For draining & serving rice
Plastic kettle  Used for carrying small quantities of water – for drinking or washing hands & feet before prayers  As above  Fuelled with charcoal from the fire. Used to iron and maintain clothing  Attaya stove  Fuelled with charcoal. Used for brewing 'attaya' – a strong, Chinese green tea. Brewed up to 4 times a day as a social activity, mainly by men.  Attaya pot  Blue kettle-like pot used in the making of attaya. The brew is used 3 times, each being much weaker than the one previous.  Attaya glass x 1  Used for drinking attaya from.  Packets of tea x 2  Green tea from China, as used for attaya  These are the main form of lighting, alongside oil lamps & torches  Handmade from natural materials in Gunjur	Gourd spoons x 2	For serving food washing hands & feet before prayers  As above  Fuelled with charcoal from the fire. Used to iron and maintain clothing  Attaya stove  Fuelled with charcoal. Used for brewing 'attaya' – a strong, Chinese green tea. Brewed up to 4 times a day as a social activity, mainly by men.  Attaya pot  Blue kettle-like pot used in the making of attaya. The brew is used 3 times, each being much weaker than the one previous.  Attaya glass x 1  Used for drinking attaya from.  Packets of tea x 2  Green tea from China, as used for attaya  These are the main form of lighting, alongside oil lamps & torches  Soap  Handmade from natural materials in Gunjur	Sieve	Made from recycled cans
As above   Fuelled with charcoal from the fire. Used to iron and maintain clothing	Plastic kettle	Used for carrying small quantities of water – for drinking or
Fuelled with charcoal from the fire. Used to iron and maintain clothing  Attaya stove Fuelled with charcoal. Used for brewing 'attaya' – a strong, Chinese green tea. Brewed up to 4 times a day as a social activity, mainly by men.  Attaya pot Blue kettle-like pot used in the making of attaya. The brew is used 3 times, each being much weaker than the one previous.  Attaya glass x 1 Used for drinking attaya from.  Packets of tea x 2 Green tea from China, as used for attaya  These are the main form of lighting, alongside oil lamps & torches  Handmade from natural materials in Gunjur		washing hands & feet before prayers
Attaya stove Fuelled with charcoal. Used for brewing 'attaya' – a strong, Chinese green tea. Brewed up to 4 times a day as a social activity, mainly by men.  Attaya pot Blue kettle-like pot used in the making of attaya. The brew is used 3 times, each being much weaker than the one previous.  Attaya glass x 1 Used for drinking attaya from.  Packets of tea x 2 Green tea from China, as used for attaya  Candles x 7 These are the main form of lighting, alongside oil lamps & torches Handmade from natural materials in Gunjur	Plastic mug	As above
Fuelled with charcoal. Used for brewing 'attaya' – a strong, Chinese green tea. Brewed up to 4 times a day as a social activity, mainly by men.  Attaya pot Blue kettle-like pot used in the making of attaya. The brew is used 3 times, each being much weaker than the one previous.  Attaya glass x 1 Used for drinking attaya from.  Packets of tea x 2 Green tea from China, as used for attaya  Candles x 7 These are the main form of lighting, alongside oil lamps & torches Handmade from natural materials in Gunjur	Iron & stand	Fuelled with charcoal from the fire. Used to iron and maintain
Chinese green tea. Brewed up to 4 times a day as a social activity, mainly by men.  Attaya pot Blue kettle-like pot used in the making of attaya. The brew is used 3 times, each being much weaker than the one previous.  Attaya glass x 1 Used for drinking attaya from.  Packets of tea x 2 Green tea from China, as used for attaya  Candles x 7 These are the main form of lighting, alongside oil lamps & torches  Handmade from natural materials in Gunjur
Attaya pot  Blue kettle-like pot used in the making of attaya. The brew is used 3 times, each being much weaker than the one previous.  Attaya glass x 1  Used for drinking attaya from.  Packets of tea x 2  Green tea from China, as used for attaya  Candles x 7  These are the main form of lighting, alongside oil lamps & torches  Handmade from natural materials in Gunjur	Attaya stove
Attaya pot  Blue kettle-like pot used in the making of attaya. The brew is used 3 times, each being much weaker than the one previous.  Attaya glass x 1  Used for drinking attaya from.  Packets of tea x 2  Green tea from China, as used for attaya  These are the main form of lighting, alongside oil lamps & torches  Handmade from natural materials in Gunjur		· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
used 3 times, each being much weaker than the one previous.  Attaya glass x 1  Used for drinking attaya from.  Packets of tea x 2  Green tea from China, as used for attaya  Candles x 7  These are the main form of lighting, alongside oil lamps & torches  Handmade from natural materials in Gunjur		y. y
Attaya glass x 1  Packets of tea x 2  Green tea from China, as used for attaya  Candles x 7  These are the main form of lighting, alongside oil lamps & torches  Handmade from natural materials in Gunjur	Attaya pot
Packets of tea x 2 Green tea from China, as used for attaya  Candles x 7 These are the main form of lighting, alongside oil lamps & torches  Soap Handmade from natural materials in Gunjur		used 3 times, each being much weaker than the one previous.
Candles x 7 These are the main form of lighting, alongside oil lamps & torches  Soap Handmade from natural materials in Gunjur	Attaya glass x 1
Soap Handmade from natural materials in Gunjur	Packets of tea x 2
,	Candles x 7
	Soap
	Chewing sticks x 2	Cut from local bushes, these are used to maintain healthy gums
& teeth
Incense packet x 1 Sprinkled on charcoal stove for scent & to keep insects away	Incense packet x 1	Sprinkled on charcoal stove for scent & to keep insects away
Scourer x 1 Used to ensure cooking pots are kept clean, sand & water mix	Scourer x 1	Used to ensure cooking pots are kept clean, sand & water mix
can also be used		can also be used
Prayer mat x 1 Used by Muslims for prayers, five times a day	Prayer mat x 1	Used by Muslims for prayers, five times a day

Box 2

Kora (stored separately)	21-stringed musical instrument. Made from half a gourd, cow hide, wood, nylon strings. Played by Mandinka 'griots' who sit with the kora facing them holding the 2 side sticks and plucking the strings with their thumbs.
Shakers x 3	1 x circles of gourd threaded on to wooden stick 1 x seeds strung together

Global Learning And Development Education Resources for Learning, Parkway, Bridgwater, Somerset, TA6 4RL. 01278 439347 glade@glade.org

Developing knowledge, skills and attitudes for change in a global society

	1 x gourd covered with net of beads
Balaphon + rubber-	Percussion instrument similar to a xylophone with calabash resonators tipped beater x 1

		IN OUT
Fabric x 7	2 x tie dye; green, purple & white, lime green, green & blue (in plastic wallet) – used for bedsheet, door / window covering & making into clothes
	1 x wax batik; purple & white – used as above
	3 x printed fabric; butterflies on green background, bird & circles on spotted background, people & animals on buff-coloured background –
	used for making into clothes
	1 x fano; striped fabric used as a wrap around skirt
Clothing x 4 pieces	1 x dress in multi-coloured patchwork
	1 x set of man's shirt & trousers in tie dyed purple, rust & white
	1 x man's top in cream with black stripe. Made from cotton grown &
Dissi's Wallston 40	spun near Basse
Plastic Wallets x 10	Tie dye in the Gambia.
	Transport.
	School & Play.
	Tourism.
	Homes & Housing.
	Food & Shopping.
	Daily Life. Gambia Information.
	Case Studies from The Gambia.
	The New Moon Rises.
Necklaces x 2	1 x with Africa carved from gourd.
Noomadoo x 2	1 x black beads with cowrie shell pendant
Bracelets x 6	Made from black wire & recycled plastic
Prayer Beads x 1	Muslim prayer beads made from seeds with bone spacers
Kola nuts	Used as gifts when visiting. They have symbolic significance
Dolls x 2	Made from fabric covered containers, with traditional dress & head covering; 1 x blue outfit, 1 x purple outfit
Brush	Made from palm fronds, for sweeping the compound
Video Pack	Looking Beyond the Brochure.
CD	Senegal & Gambia (13 music tracks).
3 x Books	Exploring Islam in Gunjur.
	The Gambia & Senegal.
	Introducing The Gambia.
3 x Maps	Foldout maps of The Gambia.
	· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·

For additional information on West Africa, see also

- West African Music Collection,
- Ghana 1 & 2 Collections
- Mali & Burkina Faso Collection
- Cameroon Collection.

Global Learning And Development Education Resources for Learning, Parkway, Bridgwater, Somerset, TA6 4RL. 01278 439347 glade@glade.org

Developing knowledge, skills and attitudes for change in a global society Within the Literacy Collections are

- Kofi & His Magic,
- A Triangle for Adaora
- Talking Cloth.

Day in a Life workshops and materials are also available.