Calling all community group leaders, young leaders, and volunteers

Are you on the look out for NEW, fun activities for your group?

Join one of our FREE short courses and learn some GLOBAL BITES - new games, crafts, quizzes, - ACTIVITIES to make people THINK about the serious issues that face our world today.

Leaders of groups of all ages welcome – WI, brownies, scouts, youth clubs, lunch clubs, church groups, Rotary etc – who want to take the activities back to their groups, plus volunteers who might help GLADE deliver GLOBAL BITES at fairs, fêtes and meetings across Somerset.

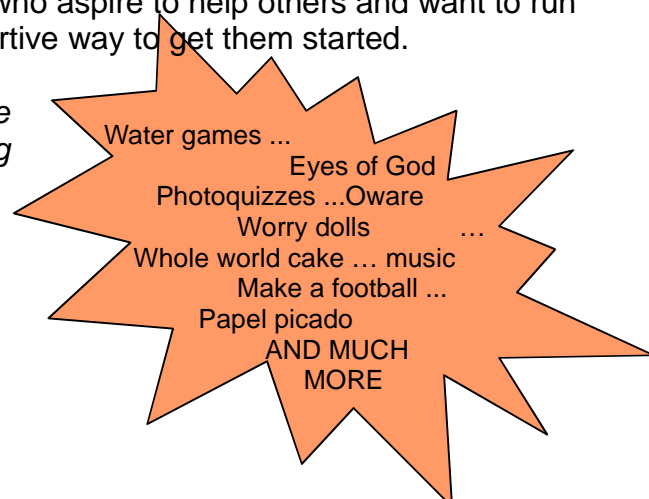

You can also bring along young members of your group who aspire to help others and want to run small group activities themselves. This is an ideal, supportive way to get them started.

Along the way you will learn techniques for getting people to talk, and grow in confidence yourself, as well as finding out more about the global issues that affect us all.

We are planning two courses,
one in Bridgwater and one in Yeovil.
Each will comprise three one-day workshops.
